

ONEMATA

If you truly get in touch with a glass of wine, you get in touch with the soil, the rain, the sunshine and the farmers.

You get in touch with Mother Earth and drinking in such a way, you feel in touch with true life, your roots and that is meditation.

If we sip and savour every drop of wine in that manner we become grateful, and when we are grateful, we are happy.

WINERY SPOT LIGHT:

CLOS HENRI WINERY, MARLBOROUGH, NEW ZEALAND

Nestled in the foothills of the Wairau Valley, carved by powerful glacial and tectonic forces, the Clos Henri Estate sits upon some of Marlborough's most fascinating soils.

Headed by members of the renowned winegrowing family of Henri Bourgeois from Sancerre, France, and guided by the expertise of our head winemaker Damien Yvon, the Estate has been meticulously cared for since its establishment in 2000.

Damien, who has been with Clos Henri since 2006, brings a wealth of experience and his French heritage offers a deep understanding of both Old World and New World winemaking techniques. His passion for organic and biodynamic practices aligns perfectly with the Bourgeois family's vision, ensuring that each vintage truly expresses the unique terroir of our estate.

Drawing on over 200 years of wine-growing expertise from the Bourgeois family and Damien's innovative approach, we craft organic wines that are textural and elegant, paying homage to the unique soil types we are fortunate to nurture. Under Damien's guidance, our winemaking philosophy embraces simplicity and low intervention, allowing the true character of our Sauvignon Blanc and Pinot Noir to shine through in every bottle.
